NOTICE: Call for Photographs for the Feni University Table Calendar 2027

Dear Students of Feni University,
Greetings.

We are delighted to announce that Feni University is preparing to publish its official Table Calendar for the upcoming year (2027). To foster greater student engagement and showcase your creative perspectives, we are inviting submissions of original photographs captured through your lenses.

For the 2027 calendar, we are curating twelve distinct months centered around themes of nature, history, and archaeological heritage. Your photographs will serve as our visual companions throughout the year.

Submission Categories

Photographs may be submitted under the following thematic categories corresponding to the monthly calendar layout:

Category No.	Theme / Focus Area
01	Historical Architecture & Monuments
02	Archaeological Sites & Heritage
03	Nature & Wildlife
04	Rivers, Water Bodies & Waterfalls
05	Hills, Forests & Rural Life

Guidelines and Terms & Conditions

1. Eligibility: All currently enrolled students across any program or semester at Feni University are eligible to participate.
2. Image Specifications:
   - Photographs must be in High Resolution and captured in Landscape (Horizontal) format.
   - Submissions must be original work. Excessive digital manipulation, watermarks, or digital frames are not permitted.
3. Deadline for Submission: All entries must be submitted by November 26, 2026. Submissions received after the deadline will not be accepted.
4. Submission Process:
   - Name your image file clearly with the chosen category and your student ID (e.g., Nature_241011001.jpg).
   - Along with your photo submission, please clearly state your Full Name, Department, Student ID, and Mobile Number in the body of the email.
   - Submission Email: pro@feniuniversity.ac.bd
5. Selection and Credit: A panel of judges designated by the university authority will select the twelve best photographs based on quality and thematic relevance. Every selected photograph will be published with due credit featuring the student's name and department.

We look forward to your creative contributions in bringing the beauty of our heritage and nature to life. Your enthusiastic participation will make this initiative a grand success.

Best regards,
